Dear Máirtín,

Thank you for your letter of 12th September, in relation to Comptroller and Auditor General's report on the National Asset Management Agency's sale of Project Eagle.

As you will likely be aware, the Comptroller and Auditor General's report was published on Wednesday 14th September, shortly after your letter was received by my office.

The report is available from the Comptroller and Auditor General's website via the following link: <http://www.audgen.gov.ie/viewdoc.asp?DocID=2338>

You may also wish to note NAMA's response to the report, available on the NAMA website: <https://www.nama.ie/about-us/news/news-detailed-view/news/nama-board-categorically-rejects-key-conclusions-of-cag-report/>

I note and appreciate your offer of the co-operation of your Department in any future investigation into Project Eagle. You may also be aware that the format such an investigation could possibly take has not yet been decided.

I hope this information is of some assistance to you.

Yours sincerely,

Michael Noonan TD
Minister for Finance
